

TERMS OF ONLINE SALES

We invite you to read these terms and conditions of online sales of <https://my.aui.ma/ICS>.

The validation of your online transaction form is considered as an irrevocable acceptance of these terms.

1. Preamble

The following online sales terms govern all transactions established through <https://my.aui.ma/ICS>. Any transaction processed through this web site assumes the unconditional and irrevocable acceptance of these conditions by the customer.

2. Purpose

These terms are intended to define the rights and obligations of the parties in the context of the online sales done via <https://my.aui.ma/ICS>.

3. Sales

The customer connects to <https://my.aui.ma/ICS> and selects the items that he wishes to buy. He then fills his identity information, accepts the terms and clicks on the "Pay" button. The customer is thus redirected to the Centre Monétique Interbancaire online secure payment platform where he completes his payment information and validates the payment.

4. Payment Methods

To pay on Internet by credit card, the customer is called to enter his payment card credentials on the secure payment page. When the transaction is accepted by the bank, the settlement to debit his account is made in the working-day following the date of the transaction confirmation.

Online payment with credit cards is secured by the Centre Monétique Interbancaire that provides a fully secure payment service.

The customer guarantees <https://my.aui.ma/ICS> that he has enough funds required when using the payment method chosen by him during the payment validation.

When paying by credit card, the conditions of this payment method that are contained in the agreements established between the customer and his issuer bank, and between <https://my.aui.ma/ICS> and his bank, are applied.

5. Data Privacy

The information requested from the customer during the online payment are required to process the online transaction. They are treated confidentially. The customer has the right to consult or rectify his personal data by sending a request via postal mail to the following address P.O Box 104, Hassan II Avenue, 53000 Ifrane, Morocco, or via electronic mail via the following email address obs@ui.ma

6. Proof of payment

The data stored on the Centre Monétique Interbancaire online platform for the account of the <https://my.aui.ma/ICS> considered as proof of payment for the online transaction made by the customer.